LUI AX 11	CLASSIFICATION CONTROL - U. S. OFFICIALS CHAY	25 X 1
	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY REPORT	`
	INFORMATION REPORT CD NO.
OUNTRY	Rumania/Bulgaria/USSR CONFIDENTIAL DATE DISTR 2 1	Feb. 1952
JBJECT	Soviet Navy Accepts Rumanian and NO. OF PAGES 1	1992
•	Bulgarian Cadets
ACE QUIRED	TO. OF ENCLS.
TE OF	SUPPLEMENT TO	25 X 1
FO.	NOT CIRCULATE REPORT NO.	25 X 1
THE UNITED S	CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE FATERS. STITUTE THE MEASURE OF TITLE 19, SOCTIONS 788 10. G. CODE, AS ANERDED. 173 TRANSELISSION OR REVUEL THE NATIONAL THANKS IN THE NATIONAL THANKS IN THE NATIONAL THANKS IN THE NATIONAL THANKS IN THANKS IN THE NATIONAL THANKS IN THANKS IN THE NATIONAL THANKS IN THE
PROHIBITED B	ORTENTS TO OR RECEIPT OF AN URAUTORIZED PRESON TARE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROPIRED.	25 X 1
1.	Reportedly, the Soviet Naval Base at Odessa made the following announcement to the General Naval Headquarters of Rumania and Bulgaria: Odessa 23 August 1951
1.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Rhack Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each otheragainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct
1.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Rhack Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each otheragainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct 20 Bulgarian and 25 Rumanian naval candidates into the Soviet War Navy has been accepted. Because of the impending arrival
1.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Black Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each otheragainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct 20 Bulgarian and 25 Rumanian naval candidates into the Soviet War Navy has been accepted. Because of the impending arrival of the training vessel TAVARISH of the Soviet Fleet from Leningrad to this base (26-27 August 1951), it is declared that
1.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Black Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each otheragainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct 20 Bulgarian and 25 Rumanian naval candidates into the Soviet War Navy has been accepted. Because of the impending arrival of the training vessel TAVARISH of the Soviet Fleet from
2.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Black Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each otheragainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct 20 Bulgarian and 25 Rumanian naval candidates into the Soviet War Navy has been accepted. Because of the impending arrival of the training vessel TAVARISH of the Soviet Fleet from Leningrad to this base (26-27 August 1951), it is declared that the selected naval candidates must be in Odessa at the latest
2. 3.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Black Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each otheragainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct 20 Bulgarian and 25 Rumanian naval candidates into the Soviet War Navy has been accepted. Because of the impending arrival of the training vessel TAVARISH of the Soviet Fleet from Leningrad to this base (26-27 August 1951), it is declared that the selected naval candidates must be in Odessa at the latest
2. 3.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Black Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each othergainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct 20 Bulgarian and 25 Rumanian naval candidates into the Soviet War Navy has been accepted. Because of the impending arrival of the training vessel TAVARISH of the Soviet Fleet from Leningrad to this base (26-27 August 1951), it is declared that the selected naval candidates must be in Odessa at the latest on 30 August 1951 in order to board." There were rumors circulating in Gelati, Rumania during September 1951, that Rumanian naval officers were to depart for training in the Soviet Union. Decument No
2. 3.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Black Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each otheragainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct 20 Bulgarian and 25 Rumanian naval cendidates into the Soviet War Navy has been accepted. Because of the impending arrival of the training vessel TAVARISH of the Soviet Fleet from Leningrad to this base (26-27 August 1951), it is declared that the selected naval candidates must be in Odessa at the latest on 30 August 1951 in order to board." There were rumors circulating in Galati, Rumania during September 1951, that Rumanian naval officers were to depart for training in the Soviet Union. Decument No.
2. 3.	Odessa 23 August 1951 "Following a decision by the Chief General Headquarters of the Navy, Moscow, the Naval Headquarters of Odessa has the pleasure to announce that in order to further tighten the friendly relationships of the Soviet Union with the Popular Democracies of the Western Black Sea, and for the settlement of the efforts of these perce-loving Democracies to support each othergainst foreign enemies, the recommendation of high Soviets to induct 20 Bulgarian and 25 Rumanian naval candidates into the Soviet War Navy has been accepted. Because of the impending arrival of the training vessel TAVARISH of the Soviet Fleet from Leningrad to this base (26-27 August 1951), it is declared that the selected naval candidates must be in Odessa at the latest on 30 August 1951 in order to board." There were rumors circulating in Gelati, Rumania during September 1951, that Rumanian naval officers were to depart for training in the Soviet Union. Decument No	25X